Life in the Spirit

On Pentecost we celebrate the great gift of the Holy Spirit to the church. During the summer months sermons will focus on two great Bible texts which talk about life in the Spirit: Romans 8 and 1 Corinthians 12. So that you can be reading along, here's the schedule:

June 20: Romans 8:9-11

June 27: Romans 8:12-17

July 4: Romans 8:18-25

July 11: Romans 8:26-30

July 18: Romans 8:31-39

August 1: 1 Corinthians 12:1-3

August 8: 1 Corinthians 12:4-6

August 15: 1 Corinthians 12:7-11

August 22: 1 Corinthians 12:12-13

(Personal note from Bill: Annmarie is expecting our first grandchild July 22—so there may be some 'sudden' changes to this schedule!)

THE PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE

Well, Lord,
things are gearing UP
for Bible School!

Curriculum is arriving in the mail.
Refreshment and supply needs
appeared in the Gathering Space.
A few remaining leadership spots are being filled.

It's a big undertaking, Lord,
and I'm thankful for the people who so willingly give time
and talent;

energy and creativity.
It's an important undertaking, Lord.
The way I figure it in one week
the students and the teachers will have the equivalent of
three months'
of Sunday School.

Children need to learn the Bible!
It contains the stories of faithful people
trying to be faithful, Lord;
and sometimes being very unfaithful!
It contains a pretty well-rounded picture
of human beings—
in our greatness, our sorrow,
our weakness, our sinfulness,
our compassion, our violence.
And it contains, Lord,
your seemingly never-ending
search
for us – to get closer to us,
to redeem us,
to teach us,
to save us.

Oh, the kids won't get all that, Lord.
At least not directly.
I hope they'll just hear, learn, enjoy
the stories. As stories.
And sing and play,
create and eat,
laugh, hug, listen.
Be kids together.

And as they do that,
the stories will seep into their systems,
as dry ground absorbs a welcome rain.
To be there for them
a resource, a source of guidance,
strength,
hope,
in times good and bad,
as they travel along life's way.

I talk to many adults, Lord,
who just don't seem to find their way to church.
Too busy.
Not interested.
See no purpose for church in their life.
Yet they remember, Lord—
they remember!

Vacation Bible School!
Stories. Crafts. Snacks. Songs.
And they remember Bible School fondly.

So, Lord help us to be about Bible School—
about your business—
with enthusiasm, energy, expectation.
Undergird us with your love
and your stories
and the prayers of your people.
